"Ramen is my staple food"
20XX. 10. 11.

At first, I thought it would be bad. They never served any water. There were no recommendations. Terrible customer service. Yet, I wonder why. Maybe it's because of my M traits

It became somewhat comforting midway through. My friend who was eating with me probably felt the same way.

That friend (I'll call her K-san for now) got her food right away, and mine arrived about 15 minutes later.

To be honest, it was great.

The feeling of being forced to wait. The unforgiving hunger. K-san's satisfied expression.

Then, the reward for enduring 15 minutes of agony. Nothing can heat this sweet moment. 5 stars
